

Ethical Recruitment Commitment

Meglobal Consultancy is committed to maintaining the highest standards of ethical recruitment practices. Our policies are designed to ensure transparency, integrity, and trust for both students and partner universities.

- We do not guarantee visas or admission outcomes.
- We do not provide, support, or accept false or misleading documents.
- We maintain transparent and honest communication with students and partner universities.
- We comply fully with SECP regulations and recognized international recruitment standards.

This policy reflects Meglobal Consultancy's commitment to responsible and ethical international student recruitment.